No-win situations

by Bro. Kevin McDonald fbcbrady.org@gmail.com

Have you ever had a problem you couldn't solve? That could describe my senior year in high school, taking Algebra, Chemistry 2 and Physics. I left a lot of test questions unanswered that year, because I didn't know where to start or how to continue. But at least those problems had answers, even if I couldn't solve for them. Sometimes life gives us problems that have no solutions.

It is frustrating to find yourself or those you love in a no-win situation, caught between the familiar rock and the good old hard place. The frustration, pain and sense of unfairness can easily overwhelm us. So what do we do? What can we do, when we have no choices, when the only option available to us is to lose?

Do we cheat? Do we quit? Do we fight to the death, even though we know it's a lost cause? While I don't recommend cheating, there is a case to be made for cutting your losses and giving up as well as for going down swinging. But sometimes we don't even have those choices. Life (or death) forces itself upon us, and we are carried off to a place we did not want to go.

A man left my office who needed answers, and I had none to give him. He is not in control of some of the most basic relationships in his life. He has no power, and the only answers I am aware of are not the ones he wants to hear.

I am thinking of Jesus praying in the garden as I write this. He had no good options, no second or third choices, and no way out of the garden. Except the cross. And that wasn't the choice He wanted--it was the choice He wanted to avoid. But He couldn't, so He took the cross. He carried it, He embraced it, and He came to own it, rather than it owning Him. The cross did not defeat Jesus, He defeated sin and Satan with the cross. The cross did not define Jesus--He defined the cross.

So when you face your no-win situation, don't curse it, don't shirk it, don't look for a parachute, or a way out. Submit yourself -- not to the situation, but to Jesus, who has been where you are and came out the other side; not only alive, but glorified, changed beyond description. I don't know what Jesus knew about His future when He prayed in the garden, but I know He trusted in the Father to meet Him in the cross and to see Him through the cross. And if God did that for Jesus, He will do it for you too.

I still don't know how to solve for X, compute how many grams of product a chemical reaction will produce, or how to figure the resultant vector of two intersecting forces. "But I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I've committed unto Him, against that day." You don't have to win, you don't have to solve it --it's already been done.

Navajo mission trip

The cross in the photo was made by Seth Spurgin using aspen logs from the area around Red Valley, AZ. Behind the cross you can see the edge of a dust storm that blew in during the outdoor Lord's Supper service on the last night of the trip.

The second photo is of Pearl Nahkai, the pastor's mother and matriarch of the Nahkai family. She welcomed the adult Bible study into her home during the week.

Fourteen people from FBC joined a group from Broadway Baptist in Fort Worth for the week of mission work June 21-30. The group conducted VBS for 80 children and 20 adults, helped with home repairs, and made home visits. FBC representatives were:

Christian Women's Job Corps, Building Men for Christ classes continue

Five individuals are enrolled in the new CWJC/BMC class meeting on Monday evenings.

RaNon Caraway, director of the program, coordinates with the local CPS social worker to contact those needing parenting classes.

Cynthia Reeves teaches the parenting class (in the absence of Betty Smith), and Rick Kent teaches the Bible study.

Please be in prayer for this ministry.

Colossal Coaster World VBS a summer highlight

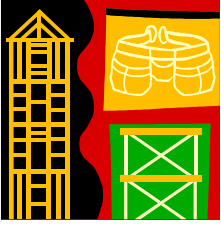

VBS was a great success this year, thanks to all! You made a difference whether you taught a class, worked in the kitchen (it takes two kitchens to successfully facilitate VBS), registered children, helped decorate, or were a prayer warrior. We had leaders and helpers in crafts, missions, music, recreation and the nursery. The wonderful food brought in for the leaders and workers was so very much appreciated!

A personal thank you to those that filled in and adjusted at the last minute when my dad was in the hospital.

Around 80 children enrolled this year. Seeds were planted and watered at VBS. We will wait on God's will in the harvest.

The classes sang for their families on Family Night at our Brady VBS: Colossal Coaster World.

Music Ministry sings around scaffolding!

This month has been full of blessings and challenges, as usual! The main thing that most of you probably already have noticed is that our projector has been sent away for repairs. Also we have a giant scaffolding in front of the pulpit (That I really want to put Jose and his drums on! HaHa) Despite all of the challenges we have had this month, we still have managed to have great services and powerful times of worship!

When we get our projector back and can put words on the screen again, we will be learning new songs to sing together like "Never Once", "Healer", "Sing, Sing, Sing", and many others. They are all wonderful songs and I can't wait to share them all with you!

Thank you all for your wonderful contributions during our worship service. Whether it is your voice, your hands uplifted, or just a smile on your face, YOU ALL make this church what it is.

With love and hope,

—Tyler Cooper, Minister of Music

Youth have action-packed summer

The Youth have had a busy summer!

During June four of our youth attended Super Summer camp. Super Summer is a Christian leadership camp. The session that we attended was held on the campus on Dallas Baptist University. Lives were touched and one student even volunteered for an over-seas mission trip while there!

Next, several of our youth went on the Navajo mission trip to Arizona. While there they contributed to the activities by developing relationships with the Navajo and helping put on a Vacation Bible School for the tribe in that area.

In July our youth were a valuable part of our own VBS here at First Baptist. Youth could be found as helpers in many areas...Recreation...Music...Classrooms...Missions... They were indispensable during this time.

On the heels of VBS came Paisano camp. This is a children's camp that some of our youth attend in order to be camp counselors.

Our youth are using their talents to bring others closer to God and they are taking opportunities to learn about Him to bring themselves closer to God as well.

Women's ministries: A place for everyone

Report from the "Sassy Sisters":

- Game night at Mary Ballew's on June 7 was a big success. Thanks, Mary, for your gracious hospitality. It was a fun evening.
- About 30 ladies attended the retreat at Staten Creek Ranch on July 12-13. It was a remarkable time of worship, fellowship, and study. Thanks to all who worked before the event on the planning teams; to Denise O'Dell, Tara Drake, and Lynn Munden for leading the music; to all who shared their testimonies; to the leaders of the small groups; to everyone who prepared the delicious meals and snacks; to Alma Davis for all her help; to everyone who stayed to clean up; to the owners of the ranch for allowing us to use their beautiful facilities free of charge; to Seth Spurgin for moving the aspen cross to the Lord's Supper location near the river; and to Lynn Munden and Susan Turk for their gracious leadership in every aspect of the retreat.
- Tentative plans are being made to offer the Angela Thomas study When Wallflowers Dance: Becoming a Woman of Righteous Confidence as a 7-week study this fall. Watch for a sign-up sheet in the west foyer. Everyone is welcome, including those who attended the retreat and those who did not.
- The August planning meeting will be on Sunday afternoon, August 11, at 5:00.

Project "Military Bible Sticks"

On behalf of the Lake Ivie Baptist Association (L.I.B.A.) Women's Missionary Union (WMU), I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who donated to this very worthwhile mission outreach project. Because of our congregation's generous donations, 10 Military Bible Sticks can be purchased for this outreach project. As a whole, the churches in the Lake Ivie Baptist Association (including FBC Brady) collected donations totaling a little over $3000.00 which will purchase 120 Military Bible Stick kits. This donation will be sent to the organization "Faith Comes By Hearing" and they in turn will purchase the Military Bible Stick kits and send them to the Chaplains to distribute to our military men and women. Thank you again and God bless you for helping with this much needed outreach project.

Dear Friends at FBC Brady, Thank you for your kind expression of love for Pat Sellers and your hospitality towards her family. We so appreciate your hosting the meal and providing the drinks, fruit, and cheese for the family and out-of-town guests before her graveside service. Blessings, The Family of Pat Sellers	Wow! We were so blessed by this beautiful quilt presented to us on Father's Day for the celebration and dedication of our little Blane and the other babies. I am not sure which ladies worked on little Blane's blanket. We are thankful to be a part of this church family and the quilt will be a precious reminder of your love and thoughtfulness. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts, Brad, Linsey, Laney and Blane Woodard
